FLOATING LUXURY (Yacht & Restaurant)

Floating Luxury wants to express a new life concept on board Jackie One, much more free and versatile than the classic summer cruise. Who stayed on board Jackie One must have appreciated the high level cooking, the crew professionalism in welcoming and servicing guests and in taking care about every detail. Floating Luxury is a new hospitality formula offered by Jackie One, moored in Monaco (Old Port - Hercules) during the spring months (March, April, May) and available as high level floating hotel and restaurant.

Those who will be in Monaco Principality for business or for fun, will have the chance to sleep in one of the four suites, even without notice (on availability), like in any luxury hotel. The comfort and luxury on board, the convenient location very close to the center of Monaco, the crew hospitality, will be a superb and engaging alternative to a night spent in hotel. From the Old Port, even on foot, guests can easily get to the Casinò, the center, the seaside and the Old Town. Captain Gaetano, experienced connoisseur of French Riviera, will be able to advice and, if needed, arrange day-trips in some of the several must-see locations; from Cannes to St. Tropez, from Antibes to Juan Les Pins and all the smallest and less known towns with unparalleled charm such as Eze sur Mer, Villefranche, etc.....

The dinghy can be used for short displacements inside the Principality, weather and sea permitting.

Every suite of the yacht can be available for a single night or for longer periods, featuring all comforts: the Owner's suite with Queen size bed offers ensuite toilet with Jacuzzi, Hi-fi and LCD TV; the astern double bedded (Queen size) Vip suite always features ensuite head and LCD TV; the two twin cabins both offer ensuite toilet and LCD TV. The crew quarter is completely separated and independent and allows Jackie One to offer her guests comfort and privacy often available in bigger yachts only.

The interior and deck living spaces can be used to relax, to have a drink with friends or even for business meetings: the brightly salon features a dining table for 6, a big sofa and LCD Home Theatre Tv and DVD.

The high level restaurant is the second news offered by Jackie One; it is not necessary sleeping onboard the yacht to have the possibility to have lunch or dinner; the first does not exclude the second.

Guests will be able to choose to have lunch or dinner among for dining areas: the salon dining area, the wide cockpit, the forward small area or the top deck.

Captain Gaetano, the Chef Silvio and the Chef Carmen personally take care of the menu and coking on board; they all are wise connoisseurs and gourmet of international and Italian cuisine.

Jackie One is famous and very well known on the chartermarket for the care dedicated by her crew to the cuisine and to the wine choice. The Chef always offers new dishes and new matches to the guests, on their requirements' bases: from raw fish to the simplest but full of flavour Mediterranean dishes, from the italian home made "tagliatelle" to the neapolitan pizza, from the finger food buffet to the ice creams on board-made. Every winter Captain Gaetano, together with several sommeliers, makes a careful choice of italian wines and oils: from the best italian Prosecco, Vermentino, Pinot and Chardonnay, to the Brunello di Montalcino, Amarone and Barolo, the SUPERTUSCANY of, the Ornellaia and Sassicaia wines, the famous Gaja vineyards and, of course, the French wines and Champagnes.

All wines have Jackie One labels. The oils selection offers olive essences from several Italian areas such as Tuscany, Liguria, Puglia.

The crew versatility allows the yacht to offer both business lunches/dinners or anniversary menus, theme-parties or simple candlelight dinners for 2 persons only.

Jackie One and her excellent crew will always be able to understand and satisfy guests' requirements, always adding that pinch of personal inspiration belonging to each Italian and making every service, every lunch and every moment on board.....

Actually unique.
